CHANGES AT NEWPORT. NEWPORT, R. I., Saturday. MR. AND MRS. M. A. VAN BUREN, who recently bought the William R. Hunter place in Middletown and estates adjoining it, will arrive in March to live there. They were here again this week making arrangements to take up their residence and to have improvements made pending their coming. They will reside on the Caswell place, adjoining the Hunter place, until the latter is changed according to their desires. Then they will move into it and give the Caswell place into the hands of their gardener. For their temporary use the Caswell residence is being improved.

Mr. William Watts Sherman is to give up his place in the Russell avenue, which he has maintained for many years. He has given the place special attention, and now that he is ill he feels there is no one who will give it quite the care he has. Accordingly he has ordered all the stock sold, although it is not a large place, Mr. Sherman has kept fine cattle on it.
